DIRECTOR'S NOTE

This year's Korean Culture Night is special in many ways. Tonight being our first time in three years to perform on stage at Royce Hall is already incredibly meaningful, after enduring a period that no one had prepared for. Before arriving at this point, there was Dreamer in 2020 and Namok in 2021. Tonight's performance is only possible because we are not alone.

COVID, which has devoured not only Korea but the whole world, has left many people helpless. Sudden changes in circumstances, unfamiliar environments, disconnected societies and limited mobility. Although this change allowed us to regain our composure and reflect on ourselves, we also suffered from the anxiety and pressure of being delayed and stopped. Korea's notoriously competitive society remained. Although society is changing, there is still an obsession with being number one. When I think about where this mentality of competition started, the ranking system of Korean schools comes to mind.

The story begins in a high school in Korea with final exams approaching. Six students while trapped in school get to know each other. Through that process, they learn that simply being there is more than enough. I hope these two hours will be a meaningful time for you to look back on the path you have walked. I would like to express my gratitude to the audience whose paths have led them here tonight.

Sincerely,
Jane Lee

올해 한국 문화의 밤은 여러모로 특별합니다. 수많은 사람이 한 치 앞을 알 수 없었던 시간을 묵묵히 버텨 끝내 이루어낸 기회이기에 오랜만의 공연이라는 것 이상의 의미가 있습니다. 2022년 지금의 저희가 이 자리에 있을 수 있도록 어려운 상황 속에서 KCN을 묵묵히 이끌어준 2020년의 드림머, 2021년의 나목이 있었습니다. 이렇듯 오늘 밤의 무대는 저희가 혼자 가 아니었기에 가능했습니다.

한국 뿐 아니라 전 세계를 집어삼킨 코로나 19는 많은 사람을 무기력으로 밀어 넣었습니다. 갑작스러운 상황의 변화, 익숙하지 않은 환경, 단절된 사회와 제한된 생활 범위. 이 변화 속에서 우리는 여유를 되찾고 자신을 돌아볼 수도 있었지만, 지체되고 멈춰있다는 불안감과 압박에 시달리기도 했습니다. 예로부터 악명 높았던 한국의 경쟁 사회는 여전히 존재합니다. 비록 사회는 변하고 있지만, 여전히 1위를 해야만 한다는 강박관념이 사회에 뿌리박혀 있습니다. 어디서부터 시작된 걸까 생각해 보면 한국 학교의 등수 제도가 생각납니다.

이야기는 기말고사를 앞둔 한 한국의 고등학교에서 시작됩니다. 총 6명의 학생이 학교라는 공간에서 서로에 대해 알아가는 과정을 통해 우리는 그저 존재하는 것으로 충분하다는 말을 해보고자 합니다. 짧다면 짧고 길다면 길 2시간의 공연입니다. 여러분께서 걸어온 길을 돌아보는 의미있는 시간이 되었으면 좋겠습니다. 이곳까지 발걸음 해주신 관객 여러분께 감사의 말씀을 전합니다.

이정윤 드림

PRODUCERS' NOTE

Dearest family, friends, and the UCLA community,

We give you our warmest welcome to the 30th annual Korean Culture Night production, "You Are Not Alone".

For the first time in three years, we have the privilege of showing what is possible when people come together as one body to pursue a common goal. Whether it be at Korean high schools or here on our campus, competition is inescapable. But our production wants to showcase that we are not alone, and our value is not defined by our performance.

Coming out of this pandemic, mental health has become a topic that is in greater discussion. And we believed that having more voices participating will give greater hope and encouragement to one another as we seek to be there for each other.

It has been an honor to see first handedly all of the hard work every student involved put in for this night. While our production may be small in number compared to past productions, the enthusiasm and passion to voice this theme through dance and storytelling onstage and from behind the stage are stronger than ever.

We want to thank you all once again for joining us tonight on the return of KCN to Royce Hall. We couldn't have done it without your encouragement and anticipation for this production. Please enjoy the show, and remember that you are not alone!

Sincerely,
Brittany Hong & Aeji Hyun

Welcome to UCLA's Korean Culture Night!

This year marks our campus' 30th annual Korean Culture Night showcase — the largest student-run Korean production in the nation — hosted by Hanoolim Korean Cultural Awareness Group. Each year, students proudly recognize and celebrate traditional and modern aspects of Korean and Korean-American culture through a rich array of dance, music and theatrical performances.

Tonight's program focuses on the student experience of navigating through the mental and emotional effects of the pandemic while balancing pressures to be successful in a competitive Korean society. Through these performances, students will explore a myriad of emotions and remind us of the importance of resilience and courage as well as self-care and personal well-being.

Thank you to our students and to Hanoolim for this annual production. I am extremely grateful to our Korean and Korean-American students for expressing and sharing their perspectives and incredible talents with our community.

Sincerely,

Gene D. Block
Chancellor

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the City of Los Angeles, it is with great pleasure that I welcome you to UCLA's 30th annual Korean Culture Night.

For three decades, KCN has dedicated itself to celebrating Korean culture and exploring the Korean American experience. As home to the largest Korean population outside of Seoul, Los Angeles is proud to host the largest student-run Korean production in the United States.

These past two years have been unprecedented and have left an indelible mark on our students. I'm encouraged that KCN is returning back to stage at Royce Hall and focusing this year's theme on examining the pandemic's impact on our students. Thank you to all of the KCN staff and supporters for opening the door to Korean culture through this production. You make our city stronger.

I send my best wishes for a memorable evening and continued success.

Sincerely,

ERIC GARCETTI
Mayor

PERFORMANCE TEAMS

MODERN

KCN Modern fits into UCLA's thriving hip-hop dance culture in a unique way. With open auditions, KCN Modern allows dancers from varying skill sets, dance teams, and cultural backgrounds to unite in celebrating Korean culture.

TRADITIONAL

The traditional Korean fan dance is based on the history of the Joseon Dynasty court dances and ceremonial dances performed by shamans. The dancers, adorned in colorful traditional Korean hanboks, utilize fans to portray powerful flora imagery.

K-POP

Koreos Founded in December, 2014, Koreos is a UCLA-based K-Pop dance team made up of diverse and talented members. Boasting over 100 million views on YouTube, Koreos creates dance covers and competes in festivals to share their love with K-Pop fans around world.

KBM Dance Launched in September 2016, KBM is a UCLA-based team under the K-pop International Student Association. KBM features a group of UCLA students who wish to share their love for K-pop and Korean hip-hop dance culture through their dance covers.

SEOULA Pronounced Sol-lah (솔라), a combination of Seoul (서울) and LA, SEOULA is a UCLA-based dance team founded in 2017, connecting with global and diverse audiences through K-pop and urban dance.
